ATLANTA – August 13, 2019 – Over the past few weeks, Dragon Con, the internationally known pop culture, science fiction, fantasy, and gaming convention, has announced nearly three-dozen Walk of Fame guests, most of whom are available for interviews.

Walk of Fame-approved media are invited to request interviews with any of the actors who have been announced. Reporters can request up to 10 interviews, and all requests must be submitted by 11:59 pm central time on August 15. Use this link.

All interviews are arranged as press conferences. The guest has the final say on whether to do an interview, and may be limited by schedule, contractual obligations, or other reasons.

In addition, reporters from any outlet approved to cover Dragon Con are invited to seek interviews with artists, authors, game designers, and other creators and experts who are attending the convention. Those interviews can be requested at this link:
